PROJECT:

'A Castle in England' - <http://acastleinengland.co.uk/>

ABOUT:

A Castle in England is an Arts Council England supported literature project collaboration between writer Jamie Rhodes and the National Trust. The projects will feature a graphic novel series inspired by Scotney Castle's history.

As part of the project, we are hosting two art exhibitions – one in June at Stour Space, Hackney Wick and the other in July at the Clerkenwell Gallery, Farringdon. We are looking for artists to create alternative covers for each of the stories/chapters or to create artwork inspired by castle from the National Trust.
